

Joey Braunwarth has been a professional dancer for 11 years and full-time instructor for 7. In 2008 he co-founded the Calgary based Hip Hop crew and entertainment company, ILLFX Entertainment. Joey has back-up danced for international platinum recording artist Raghav as well as opened for artists such as Danny Fernandes, Boys To Men, MC Hammer, Girlicious, Jazzy Jeff and performed at numerous corporate events alongside ILLFX. He studied for 5 years in the Professional Training Program at Decidedly Jazz Danceworks where he immersed himself in African, Jazz, Funk, Ballet, Afro Cuban, Salsa, Swing, Contemporary and traveled as far as Sweden to study Lindy Hop, a swing style from 1930s. Although his primary focus is Commercial Hip Hop, being a diverse dancer, teacher and choreographer allows him to train dancers from multiple genres with a greater perspective.
